ITEMS AT THE COURTS.
Serge Wills last night raided the servants' quarters at a German mess in 5, Obervictoria Road, Kowloon, and arrested five coolies, whom he found gambling, on a charge of trespassing. Four of them were from the German Club. Fines of $3 each were imposed at the Magistrate's today.

Opium Excise officers yesterday made a raid on premises situated at 12, Kwai Wah Lane, and found a considerable quantity of prepared and dressed opium, three 'chops' in imitation of the Opium Farmer's, a quantity of wrappers and about 400 small opium loaves. Four men were arrested and at the Magistrate's today one was fined $150, or three months' hard labour, the other three were discharged on the count of possession of 'chops' and one of their number remained on another charge.

THE "DAILY PRESS" DIRECTORY.

It is with pleasure that we again welcome the appearance of that remarkably comprehensive and most trustworthy Directory and Chronicle which is yearly published by the Hongkong Daily Press. This is the 48th year of its publication and with each appearance it seems to increase in bulk and grow in value. Certain it is that there are few, if any, like productions which cover such a wide geographical area or which include so much really reliable information within its pages. It could, with every justification, proclaim itself as the business man's volume. A few lines will suffice to indicate its broad scope. It covers China, Japan, Hongkong, the Philippines, Malacca, Korea, Indo-China, Borneo, Eastern Siberia, Siam, Netherlands India, the Straits and the Malay States. To each of these settlements there is a most complete commercial and private directory, together with well-defined plans of streets, etc., as well as much interesting descriptive matter; statistical information indicates the commercial activities of the various ports; a big feature is made of international treaties, which are set out in detailed text; tariffs, port regulations, statutory rules and orders also find a place; there is a most extensive postal guide for Hongkong; while maps, house flags in colors, a calendar, a useful chronological list of Far Eastern occurrences, a complete directory of foreign residents, as well as of British traders and Protestant missionaries, add to the value of the mammoth publication, which comprises nearly 2,000 pages. Its production is a tribute to the workmanship of the well-known office.

THE HONGKONG UNIVERSITY.

Temporary Disposal of Funds.

On Wednesday afternoon the ninth meeting of the Committee of the Hongkong University was held under the presidency of His Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard.

Those present were:—R.E. The Governor, Sir E. H. May, K.C.M.G. (Col. Sec.), Sir C. P. Clater, C.M.G., Hon.
Mr. Thomson (Col. Treasurer), Hon.
Mr. Brewin (Registrar General), Hon. Dr.
Ho Kai, C.M.G., Hon. Mr. Wei Yuk, C.M.G., Hon. Mr. P. N. H. Jones (D.P.W.), Mr. Clementi, The Bishop of Victoria, Hon. Mr. M. Stewart, Mr. Lau Chu Pak, Mr. Irving (Director of Education).

Absent—Mr. Mody and Mr. Follock (in England).

The Chairman informed the Committee that he had received a telegram from Mr.
J. H. Scott to the effect that Messrs.
Butterfield and Swire and allied firms were satisfied that the conditions on which they had promised to give £40,000 to the Endowment Fund of the University were fulfilled and they confirmed the gift. He had also that afternoon received a letter from the Chairman of the Chinese Sub-Committee informing him that £113 ($1,250) had been received from the Chinese in Australia towards the Endowment Fund. The scholarships claimed by donors of $10,000 and upwards are as follows:—

Mr. Ng Li Hing, four plus, one of $120.
Mr. Chiu C. Tin, Mr. Au Chak Mai and Mr. Ho Tung, each one.

The Canton Reorganization Bureau and the Canton Literary Chancery, each four.
The Canton Salt Commissioner and Customs, each three.

Saigon Tung Sak Chan, one.

Total, twenty-two, involving a capital of $112,000.

The Treasurer, Sir C. P. Clater, C.M.G., called attention to the letter he had addressed to the Chairman and its reply which had been published in the local Press and stated that since the date of the subscription list attached to that letter he had collected many of those which had not been paid up. The amount now actually lying in the Bank to the credit of the Fund was $683,320.

A site plan showing the proposed location of the students' quarters and the whole of the University buildings was circulated to the Committee and approved.

The Chairman stated that it was proposed to build three (to accommodate 180 residents) out of the six blocks of buildings for students' residences. It is assumed that these will cost about $100,000, but the sub-committee consisting of Mr. Brewin, Dr. Ho Kai and the Director of Public Works are at present engaged in formulating recommendations which they hope to submit shortly as to the dimensions of the rooms and various requirements of the buildings, and no exact estimate is possible until the drawings have been approved. These buildings together with the Anatomical Laboratory are additional to those which Mr. Mody had undertaken to erect, and it will therefore be necessary to raise funds for their erection.

Sir Henry May pointed out that the Anatomical Laboratory had been promised by Mr. Ng Li Hing at a cost of about $20,000, but he had later, with the consent of the College of Medicine, transferred the whole of his gift of $50,000 to the Endowment Fund. The College of Medicine were most anxious to have this Laboratory erected at an early date, since it was in the department of Practical Anatomy that the present students were weakest. Dr.
Ho Kai said that the original plan for the Laboratory would require enlargement to meet the needs of the Medical Faculty of the University and would cost not less than $25,000. The Chairman then proposed that it should be suggested to Mr. Ng Li Hing that he should withdraw the sum of $25,000 from the Endowment Fund and erect the Laboratory as he had originally undertaken to do. He would then be entitled to two scholarships in respect of his remaining donation to the Endowment Fund. This was agreed to.

The Chairman said that the principal object of the meeting was to decide how the funds in hand should be dealt with.
Messrs John Swire & Sons' donation was $20,000 invested in 5 per cent. Mortgage Bonds, and the donation from the Takao Sugar Company and Ocean S.S. Company amounting together to £10,000 would be understood to be made in cash. "When the buildings approach completion." Leaving these out of consideration for the present, there remains about eight lakhs, of which about $655,000 is at present lying at the Bank at a rate of 2 per cent. interest only.
Sir P. Clater moved that this sum should be invested locally in mortgages, or in the produce no immediate benefit for the College of Medicine. Unfortunately, however, the Endowment Fund had as yet received no such contribution from friends of the Medical College in England, and the understanding upon which the resolution had been framed had not therefore been fulfilled. Sir H. May had intimated that the friends of the College of Medicine would now make a renewed effort, and as it is to the interest of the University that as many well qualified students as possible should be enabled to commence work when the University opens he (the Chairman) thought the modified proposal now made should be accepted. It was agreed that as from January 1st, 1911, a sum not exceeding £3000 per annum should be derived from the interest on the Endowment Fund to the payment of a permanent teacher in Anatomy for the Hongkong College of Medicine. He will be engaged on such conditions of service as the Committee may hereafter approve with the object of inculcating in the students the permanent professional staff of the University when it is inaugurated.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1910.

CENTENARIES OF 1910.

THOUGH 1910 will not equal 1909 in the wealth of centenaries, tercentenaries or bi-centenaries, it still will have a few centenaries to celebrate which possess considerable interest. Within the next few weeks the general public will undoubtedly see many references to Pope Leo XIII, who would have reached his hundredth birthday had he survived until March 3, 1910. He lived by almost a generation more of the famous men who were born in the same year. It is hard to realize that Leo was only a month younger than Chopin, a composer who seems to belong to a more remote past. Chopin was born in Poland, his father being a Frenchman and his mother a Pole. At the age of nine he had begun to show the talent which in another ten years was to make him a finished virtuoso. The phase of his career which is likely to have most interest for all but musicians was his intimacy with the Baroness Duxbury, who, under the nom de plume of "George Sand," was not less brilliant nor less distinguished in her day.
Tuberculosis cut short Chopin's career at the age of 39. Another famous musician whose centenary occurs in 1910 is ROBERT SCHUMANN. Born in Saxony, SCHUMANN, like CHOPIN, was an infant prodigy. The first of the many misfortunes that made his career a tragedy was the tearing of some ligaments of his right hand, crippling that member for life. The accident occurred when SCHUMANN was experimenting with a machine which he had invented to supple his fingers. To his despair, he found his career as a pianist ruined just when it was beginning. It was then that the ambition to be a great player was succeeded by the ambition to become a composer. Before he had made much headway in this sphere he fell in love with Clara, the daughter of Wier, his old music master. The girl was a brilliant musician, and the pride of her father, who feared that by accepting SCHUMANN she would be sacrificing her own prospects. Therefore he opposed the union, until at last the distracted lover brought a suit in the courts to compel the old man to give his consent. He succeeded, and for twelve years lived in the utmost happiness with his wife. In this period he composed those masterpieces that have given him a place among the great composers, but after ten years of happy work he began to develop eccentricities that swiftly grew into insanity.

At the age of 44, when his prospects were most brilliant, SCHUMANN attempted suicide by plunging into the Rhine.
He was rescued, but his reason had been shattered, and two years later he died in an asylum.

Another eccentric musical genius born in 1810 was OTTE DILL. DILL was a Norwegian, and was designed for the church by his father, a chemist in Bergen. He played the violin as an amateur, but probably no one would have ever heard of him as a musician had not the conductor of an orchestra at a theatre been taken suddenly ill on the eve of an important performance.
No professional substitute was available or such short notice, and so OTTE DILL, the talented young amateur, was summoned. Such an ovation did his playing receive that he threw aside his books, and decided to live by his violin. About this time he had the misfortune to wound an opponent in a duel, and to escape arrest fled to Paris. Here ill-luck and disappointment awaited him. Like SCHUMANN, he resolved to end his troubles by suicide, but DILL also was fished out of the water. His fortunes had mended, however, for he was carried to the house of a lady, who saw in him a resemblance to her dead son. She tenderly nursed and obtained for the young Norwegian the patronage of the Duke of Montpensier, under whose auspices he was launched on his extraordinary career. He died in 1880.

ARTHUR DE MUSSSET, who is ranked with Hugo and Lamartine among the French poets, was another genius of 1810. He was a never-dewell youth, but at the age of 18 had written poems that attracted Hugo's attention. He, too, was one of GEORGE SAND's lovers, and it was this brilliant woman who inspired some of his best verses, just as she had inspired some of CHOPIN's most beautiful melodies. At the age of 30 dissipation had so undermined Mussset's health that he was incapable of producing anything of merit. When he died, aged 47, he was a shattered old man.

In English literary circles one of the chief minor events of the year will be the centenary of Mrs E. C. GASKELL, who, born on September 29, 1810, died in 1865. A charming writer, a keen observer of nature in her many manifestations, Mrs GASKELL occupies an unchallenged niche among the women who have enriched her country's literature.

Genius we know takes many forms, therefore we see no incongruity in coupling with the names just mentioned that of a truly marvellous man whose activities in his own special sphere of work were household words in two continents—PRINCE TAYLOR BARNUM. Born in Connecticut in 1810 he turned his hand to many things before he arrived at his true bent, the exploiting of freaks, monstrosities, and other marvels in connection with a gigantic circus and menagerie. His circus has never been beaten. Long after the memory of his wonderful assemblage of living and dead curiosities, ranging from Jumbo to Tom Thumb, have faded, this epigram about the American people liking to be humbugged will remain.
It can be predicted that BARNUM's centennial will be more prolific in good stories and interesting recollections than that of any of the greater celebrities whose careers will be the subject of special review in the course of the next twelve months.

THE ACCIDENT TO "CYCLOPS."

Telegraphic advice has been received by Messrs Butterfield and Swire that the Ocean Steamship Cyclops has been floated.
A small quantity of her cargo has been transferred to the Blue Funnel steamers Dardanus and Proteolus and further particulars as to when cargo may be expected here are expected shortly.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The German Mail of the 28th January was delivered in London on the 23rd February.

The Australian seasonal rush to Europe has already set in, and all the shipping lines report record bookings.

Gunners J. T. Sibbit, W. Burton, and T. Eoff, having left the Colony without permission have been struck off the strength of the Volunteers.

The Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China has opened a branch at Seretan, the capital of the State of Negri Sembilan, Federated Malay States.

The Duke of Argyll has unveiled, at St. Paul's, a memorial of the New Zealand Premier, the Rt. Hon. Sir R. J. Sedden.
He paid an eloquent tribute to his services to Australasia.

An Englishman is expected to serve his country occasionally. I cannot release you," the Judge at Clerkenwell said to a man who pleaded he had had to close his shop to attend the court.

This morning H.M.S. King Alfred broke her homeward-bound pennant. All the Colony regrets her departure, for there is hardly one of the ship's company, officers or men, who have not made warm friends here.

The French Government is introducing a Bill to purge the army of the criminal and "hooligan" elements. These elements will be relegated to the battalions in Africa.
The measure provides that the soldiers may, by good conduct, qualify to return to France.

Some time about the middle of March, we understand, His Excellency the Governor proposes to lay the foundation stone of the Hongkong University buildings. The ceremony will be accompanied by a little display consonant with the importance of the occasion.

Here Revettion, in an article published in the Deutsche Tageszeitung, a Berlin daily journal, declares that Lord Fisher who has just retired from the position of First Sea Lord of the British Admiralty, has left his successor a fleet prepared in the fullest measure for war, and also fully equal to future requirements.

Prior to the departure of H.M.S. King Alfred, His Excellency the Governor (Sir F. D. Lugard) and staff went on board and accepted an invitation to remain to lunch. When they said "Good-bye" to the worthy Admiral on coming away, a salute of 17 guns was fired from the cruiser.

The Union Church Literary Club will meet in the School Hall, Kennedy Road, to-night at 9 p.m., the Y.M.C.A. Debating Society being their guests for an inter-dub debate. The latter will move that "Contact with the West has been beneficial to China," the home club taking the negative side. All members and friends of both clubs are invited to attend.

Prof. Jay G. Rogers, Ph.D., has been delivering a series of lectures in Canton to a gathering of students. He found them keen to have the fullest light on the relations between Natural Science and Religion. They are urging him to return.
In the meantime he is giving a few days to Hongkong in response to many strong requests. He proposes to give addresses on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 9 p.m., also on Monday at 8.30 p.m.

The Earl of Selborne, Governor of the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony, speaking at a festival in the German Club at Johannesburg, said that every German who went to South Africa was an additional source of strength to the country. The British and Germans there were absolutely integrated, and that led to a mutual understanding. Their compatriots in Europe, however, were less fortunately placed, and they remained in dangerous ignorance of each other.

A POPULAR REMEDY IN SOUTH AFRICA.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Cough Remedy has been in South Africa for a number of years, and the fact that it still retains its popularity as a cure of coughs, colds and croup is certain proof that it gives satisfaction. Messrs. Bros., general merchants of Tarkenton, Cape Colony, make the following statement: "Chamberlain's preparation has a steady demand all the year round and continues to be popular. We always keep a stock of these medicines on hand. For sale by all chemists and storekeepers."

HONGKONG DEFENCES.

GENERAL FRENCH REPORTED

Remodelling Advocated.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

LONDON, February 24.

It is reported in official circles that General Sir John French, who recently made an inspection of the British military defences in the Far East, has returned most dissatisfied with the defences of Ceylon, the Straits and China, and that he advocates their remodelling on a new basis.

Lord Kitchener's report is expected to corroborate General French's view.

has accordingly been lodged by the Foreign Ministers.

A dramatic, vocal and instrumental entertainment, on the occasion of "Staff Night," is to be given at the Royal Engineer's Theatre on Wednesday evening, March 2, by the Royal Engineers.

A READER—Many thanks for your letter. We agree with you that if possible the police should get on to the track of the persons who are responsible for the importation of fallen women into the Colony.
That would be nipping the evil at its source.

Two artistes, Miss Helen Thorne, solo balladist, and Mr. Fred Smart, pianiste and virtuoso, will also appear at the City Hall on Saturday evening in addition to Miss Mignon de Bonville, the world-renowned baroque dancer, who will also appear in the Salome dance.

India, Australia and China, who leaves for Home on the 25th of the same month.

Mr. B. C. Howard, agent of the Pacific Mail Co. at Yokohama, accompanied by his wife and daughter, will arrive by the Siberia to-morrow morning, from Manila, where they have been attending the Carnival.

The Indian Mirror reports that Lady Minto, who was following the paper chase at Tallyho, was slightly shaken owing to her horse falling at a jump. Fortunately, she escaped without serious injury, though at the garden party she appeared with her wrist in a sling.

The first nomination paper of Mr. W. J.
Nicholson, the Conservative candidate for the Petersfield (East Hants) Division, was signed by Colonel John Bower, who is in his 101st year. Colonel Bower is believed to be the oldest elector in England and the oldest officer of the British Army.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

THIS remedy always wins the good opinion, if not the praise, of those who use it.
The quickness with which it effects even the most severe cases, makes it a favorite everywhere. It is equally valuable for children, and when reduced with sweetened water is pleasant to take. For sale by all chemists and storekeepers.

THE POLITICAL OUT-LOOK.

WORKING ARRANGEMENT
LIKELY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, February 23.

In the Parliamentary lobbies the political situation is regarded as less acute.

As the result of a conciliatory speech by Mr. Barnes, the Labour leader, it is thought possible that a working arrangement between the Government, the Labour, and the Nationalists will be effected within a few weeks.

"TIMES" CHIEF PRO-PRIETOR DEAD.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, February 23.

Mr. A. F. Walter, who has had the control of The Times for many years, is dead.

ASQUITH AND HOME
RULE.

NO BILL PRESENTED NEXT SESSION.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, February 24.

Mr. H. E. Asquith, the Premier, has informed Mr. Craig that no Home Rule Bill will be presented to parliament this session.

[Note.—There are three gentlemen of the name of Craig in Parliament but Mr.
Asquith's correspondent is most likely Capt. C. Craig, Conservative member for South Antrim.—Ed. C. M.]

PRINCE HSUN AT THE RUSSIAN LEGATION.

(Wah Tsai Yat Po's Service.)

PEKING, February 23.

Their Imperial Highnesses, Prince Hsun and Prince Tsao dined with the Russian Minister at the Russian Legation on Tuesday.

CHINA'S NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

ATTITUDE OF CHINESE ABROAD.

(Wah Tsai Yat Po's Service.)

PEKING, February 23.

The Peking Government is in receipt of numerous telegrams from Chinese abroad stating that if the National Assembly is not opened early they will for ever reside in foreign lands.

THE EMPEROR'S
STUDIES.

TO BEGIN NEXT MONTH.

(Wah Tsai Yat Po's Service.)

PEKING, February 23.

The Grand Council has decided that the Emperor of China should commence his studies next month and has recommended that Lu Yui-Chang, Grand Secretary and President of the Board of Civil Affairs, should be appointed his Majesty's tutor.

THE KING'S APPRECIATION.

At the meeting of the Legislative Council this afternoon H. E. the Governor read a despatch from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated January 12th, saying that the congratulatory message sent to His Majesty the King from Hongkong on the occasion of his birthday, together with the accounts of its celebration and the unveiling of the statues of Her Majesty the Queen and Her Royal Highnesses, the Princess of Wales had been laid before His Majesty, who had commanded that an expression of appreciation of the good wishes be forwarded. His Majesty had also learned with much interest of the unveiling of the statues of the date set aside for the birthday celebrations.

There are only 200 Chinese soldiers at Lhasa itself. The committee have received no reply from Peking though reminders have been sent. It is believed that the Wai-wu pu neglected to place the appeal before the Prince Regent.

THE SITUATION IN TIBET.

APPEARANCE OF A CHINESE FORCE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, February 23.

A Reuter's wire from Calcutta states that a Chinese force of unknown strength has entered Lhasa from the East.

The Dalai Lama has left with some Chinese Ministers, proceeding in the direction of India, and is expected at Kailashong on the 26th inst.

The Tashi Lama is believed to be at Shigatse.

WHAT CHINA IS DOING.

Heavy Losses of Men and Guns.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, February 23.

Reuter learns that some 25,000 troops, trained under the Japanese system, are being pushed into Tibet from Szechuan.
They are equipped with wireless instruments and have quantities of machine guns and mountain guns.

The force is under the command of the vigorous and enlightened brother of the Viceroy of Szechuan.

The intention is apparently to establish Chinese domination in Tibet to remodel conditions on the frontier and to encourage Chinese settlement.

In preparation for the military advance 7,000 men have worked day and night at the two arsenals in Chengtu, which were lately refitted with German machinery under German supervision.

The Chinese troops suffered severely from cold and privations, and the hostility of the border tribes.

On one occasion the Chinese were ambushed near Batung and lost 400 men and a number of guns.

[Note.—Private advices from a well-informed source, says The Times, of January 14, disclose the serious situation, which has arisen in Tibet owing to the constant friction between the Chinese authorities and the Tibetans. The Viceroy, Chou, does not seem to exercise any real power, which apparently lies in the hands of Lian and Wen, the senior and junior Ambans, resident at Lhasa
